

The Boys of Troop 2103

Recently tested their scouting skills by competing in the 2019 Pacific Coast Camporee. The Camporee is an annual event where scout troops from across the county compete in skills such as hatchet throwing, fire building, and orienteering. Out of a total of 15 troops, Troop 2103 was selected as the best troop at Camporee. In addition, Troop 2103 won many other awards such as best gateway and had the two best patrols out of 35 total patrols.
